Just Environments Data Initiative

Antisemitism on Social Media

DATATHON AND AI COMPETITION for high school and undergraduate students at Indiana University Bloomington

Fall 2019

Want to learn about online hate speech/antisemitism and how to combat it using Artificial Intelligence?

Join a team or create your own for a DATATHON to deal with big data and a HACKATHON to use AI in a series of team-based workshops coached by IU professors.

All high school/undergrad students are invited to apply! No prior knowledge is required but some experience with programming may be useful. Earn a certificate at the end of the program.

Visit http://social-lense.online/ to learn more, read the competition guidelines, and complete a team or individual application.
